- Fewkes" at time of his marr. Genealogical Society advised us to leave sealing as is until Millenium.
3. Information about ch #1, Mary, is based on data from Orson Hicken's diary wherein he records her as his "aunt". He calls her both "Mary" and "Jane" in his record. (Other sources searched have proved nil.)
 4. The Fewkes family lived in that part of the parish of St. John's the Baptist, Whitwick, which became St. George's of Swannington about 1868.
 5. David William Hicken referred to his grandparents as Benjamin and Culloden Fewkes.
 6. Elijah M. Hicken family record book showed "Benjamin Culloden Fewkes" as father of Catherine Fewkes who md. Thomas Hicken. (Parish records did not reveal the source of the name "Culloden".)
 7. Ages at death were given in Orson Hicken's diary and secured when he visited members of the family in 1890.
 8. It is thought Ch #3, John's wife is probably Hannah Bentley, md 21 Apr 1835, Shepshed par. Leics., Engl, because of a granddaughter with the middle name of "Bentley".
 9. Orson Hicken's diary written while visiting members of this family gives husband's death as 13 Apr 1813, age 41 years.
